If you or someone you know is in need of some assistance, please read the following:

About Them

The Ministry Center is a ministry of the churches of Tulsa. They are here to serve others in the name of Jesus.

Their Purpose

Their desire is to make human services available to people who are struggling to be contributing members of society. They strive to meet emergency needs of those struggling without regard to race, color, national origin, religion, or sex. Their intent is not only to help meet basic human needs, but more importantly for others to discover the abundant life through Jesus Christ.

What They Do

As resources are available, they will provide:

- Staple food items sufficient for two days
- Two changes of clothing per person
- SPARK (summer programs designed to reach kids)
- Christian guidance

Their policy is to decline ALL requests for:

- Rent assistance
- Cash grants
- Utility, gas or medical bills

Hours of Operation

Monday-Thurs. 9 am-2 pm

An appointment is required for all clients. No one is assisted until they have completed an "intake interview" with a volunteer staff member. The "intake interview" assists in evaluating each clients unique circumstances.
