From The Pastor's Pen

I have always admired the boldness, courage and conviction of Daniel. He stood for his principles in a pagan culture. The Bible tells us that Daniel, "Purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself" with food and drink that God said was forbidden for Jews, so he asked his captors for another menu (Dan. 1:8).

Instead of crossing his arms and refusing to eat, Daniel asked permission to take a different nutritional approach. When the official refused, Daniel pursued his goal with a polite request to someone else: "Please test your servants for ten days and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink" (Daniel 1:12).

We can learn from this young man, who took a bold stand for God by asking permission instead of making demands. There is no trace of arrogance in his behavior.

Gentleness and respect are to characterize our testimony to an unbelieving world. We are not to compromise our commitment to Christ, but we are to be ready to answer anyone who asks about our hope (I Peter 3:15-16). Our witness for Christ, therefore, is to be lived and spoken boldly, yet gently and respectfully.

When it's time to take a stand, let's follow Daniel's powerful example of courage combined with courtesy.

Look forward to seeing you on the Lord's day for Bible study and worship.

Love in Christ,
Bro. Scott
